> MILWAUKEE, Wis., August 2.-Milwaukee today took on a gala appearance with decorations of the national flag and bunting prettily draped, in preparation for the five-day celebration of the centennial of Perry's victory on Lake Erie. The festivities are scheduled to begin with memorial services at the auditorium Sunday afternoon, consisting of sacred music and patriotic addresses. Monday there will be a patriotic concert and memorial meeting, the chief feature of which will be an oration by W. Bourke Cockran of New York. The arrival of the Niagara and the centennial fleet is scheduled for Tuesday forenoon and an automobile parade with machines decorated in national colors is planned for the afternoon.

A military and naval parade Wednes-day afternoon, to be followed by a sham battle on Milwaukee bay in the evening, will be a feature of the fourth day's cele-
